

Have the “Welcome” card as the first section of the profile board. Place it above the Profile Bio.

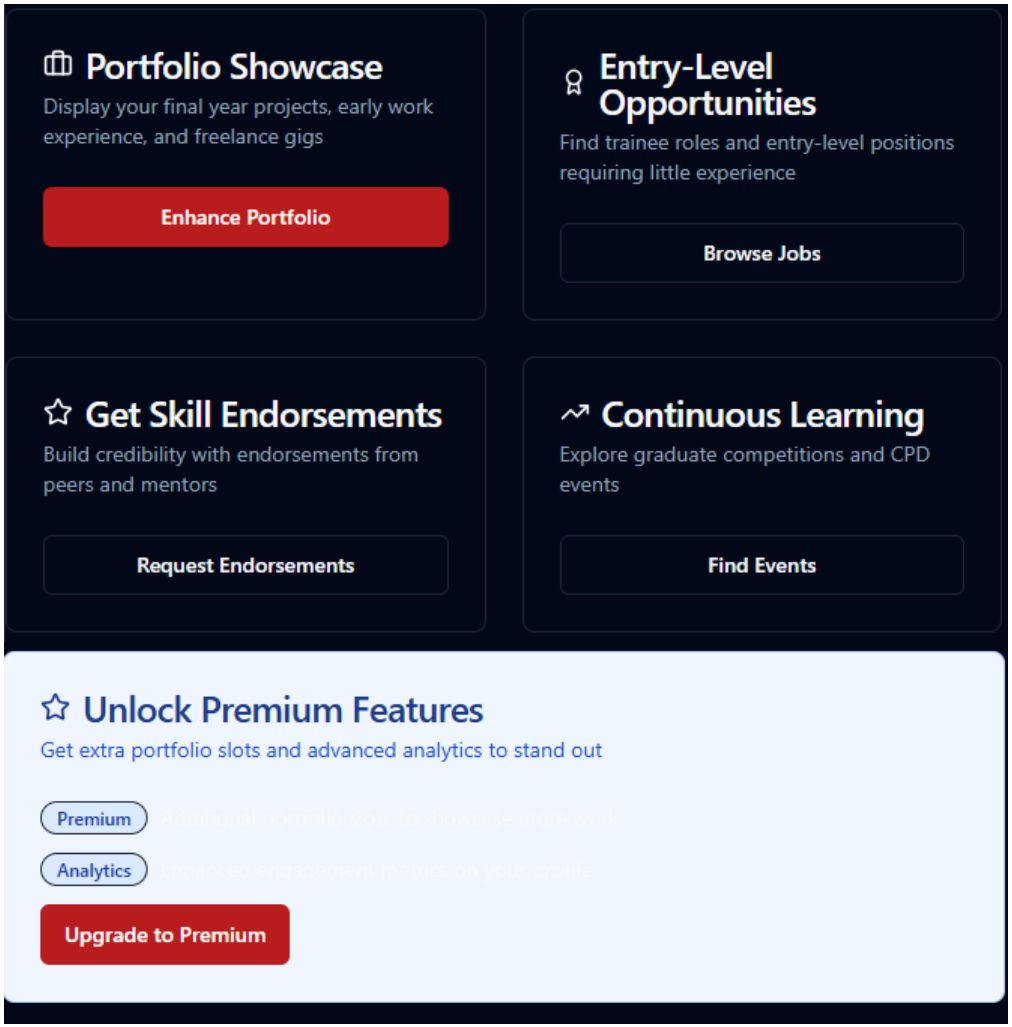

Combine these 2 sections into 1 section.

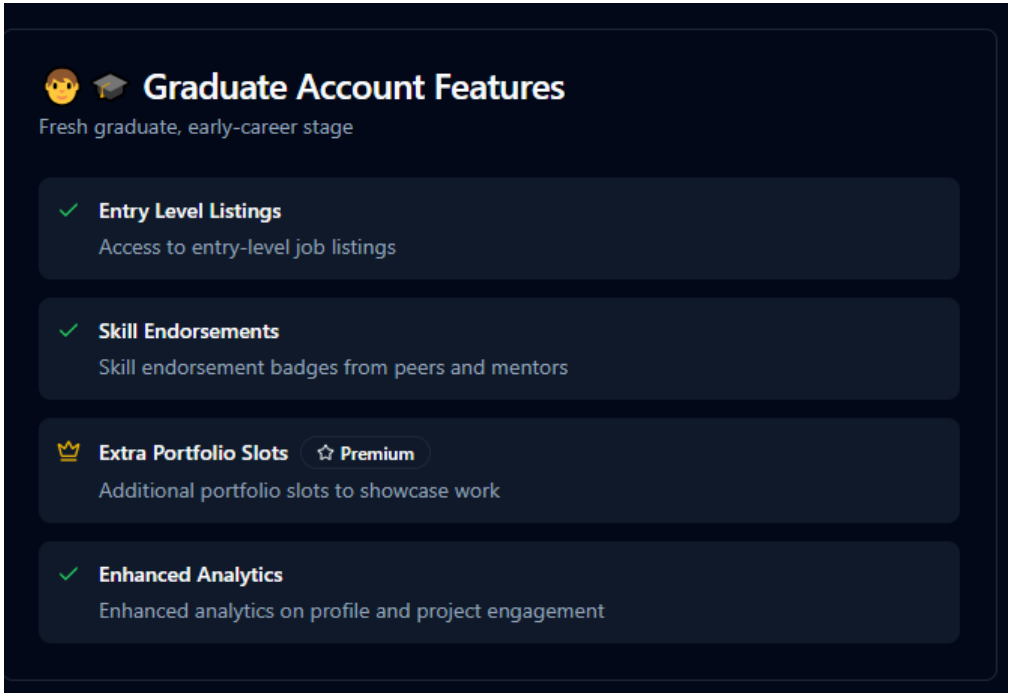

Then have the new section organised into 2 even columns like this illustration.

The new organised section should be placed between the Profile Bio section and the About/Activity section.

Eliminate these sections from the Profile Board.

Eliminate this section from the Profile Board.

Apply these Profile Board changes to all the other respective account types (Student, Professional, Company). Profile boards for all account types should be similarly organised and orderly.
